Introduction

Cyber Security in banks is very important technology now a days.

This program aims at imparting practical and hands on training for bank officials. In military parlance, Red team-blue team exercises are cyber security games. In this game, One team of security pros — a red team — attacks something, and an opposing team — the blue team — defends it.

Objective

- * To train bank officials in cyber defence
- * To understand Red Team and Blue Team exercise
- * To give hands on training on useful tools
- * To give hands on and impart practical training

Contents

- * Introduction to cyber defence
- * Various Tools used – For example, Wireshark, Nessus, Burp suite, Mod Security, etc
- * Role Playing – Red Team
- * Role playing – Blue Team
- * Cyber drill applications – case studies

End Use

The outcome of this training is acquiring new skills in cyber defence, Red / Blue Team Exercises.
